MEDICINAL

Bed-Time.
Going to bed to tumble and toss and dream; to pursue in vain the phantom sleep through long weary hours and rise to a new day unrested and unrefreshed. That is the way with many a woman, who is tormented by the aches and pains resulting from female weakness, and other diseases of the delicate organs of woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was made to cure just such cases and it does what it was made for. It heals ulceration and inflammation, dries debilitating drains, cures female weakness, strengthens the body, soothes the nerves and enriches the blood. It gives lasting strength for the day and sound sleep for the night.

"For three years I suffered continually," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis of 301 East College St., Jacksonville, Fla. "I sought relief among the medical profession and found none, until I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I commenced taking this medicine I weighed ninety-five pounds. It built me up until now I weigh one hundred and fifty-six pounds—more than I ever weighed before. I was so bad I would lie down to day and lay for a week with internal inflammation, a disagreeable, 'in' bearing down pains and such distress every month. But now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman. Thanks to your medicine."
Biliousness is banished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

CATARRH Nasal Catarrh.
In all its stages there should be cleanliness. ELY'S CREAM BALM cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives out a cold in the head quickly.
GOLD IN HEAD
ELY'S BALM is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large size, 50c at drugists or by mail. Trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS.
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are heavy and strong are the ones who eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomachs can take it.

THE FRENCH "ANTI-MILLIONAIRE" BILL.

Thoroughness is certainly a characteristic of the "anti-millionaire" bill which was recently passed by the French Chamber of Deputies and which is aimed at the continuity of large fortunes. The bill contemplates the imposition of death duties on estates of the value of 200,000 francs at rates varying from one to ten per cent., and provides for the progressive increase of the same, so that estates of the value of more than 1,000,000 francs would be subject to the payment of from two and one-half to thirteen and one-half per cent., according to the degree of relationship between decedent and beneficiary. If the net share of any beneficiary should exceed 1,000,000 francs an additional tax would be deducted from his or her share to the amount of one-twelfth of the tax on the entire estate. Shares amounting to 100,000,000 francs would be taxed at the rate of three per cent. and one-half per cent. The inheritance of $5,000,000, if he should happen to be the sole heir and of a sufficiently remote degree of consanguinity, must thus be mulcted in more than one half the sum. To prevent the dodging of the tax by ante-mortem distribution of estates it is provided that gifts made during the lifetime of decedent shall be subject to similar duties. The expectation that the bill will certainly be rejected by the French Senate may explain the passage of the measure by the Chamber of Deputies. In laying with fire in order to obtain the applause of the galleries the French legislators incur the danger of being burnt. [Philadelphia Record.]

ROSSER AND LEE.

A dispatch from Charlottesville states that General Thomas L. Rosser is now engaged in writing a series of letters on "The Battle of Gettysburg." The General severely criticizes General Lee, and says: "Lee will be held responsible at the bar of history for his fatal blunder." This announcement in a morning paper has been the topic of much comment on the part of veterans and others. Probably no one in Richmond was well informed on the details of the Gettysburg campaign and Gen. Lee's operations in Pennsylvania as Colonel William L. Rosser, who made a careful study of the subject a few years ago. He put his conclusions and the reasons for them into the form of an address, which he has delivered several times. A copy of this address was sent to Lord Wolseley, at that time commander-in-chief of the English army. Colonel Rosser received from him a very pleasant letter, acknowledging the receipt of it and stating that he would have it published in the United Service Magazine of London, in which it appeared in April and May, of 1897. When seen this morning, Mr. Rosser said that it was, of course, a matter of opinion whether General Lee made a blunder at Gettysburg or whether he did not. "General Rosser thinks he did. I do not think so. Some years back I made a very careful study of all the available records bearing upon the Gettysburg campaign. I believe that nothing in General Lee's career illustrates his splendid military genius more clearly than the battle of Gettysburg."

LIEUTENANT EDIE CUT DEAD.—An interesting incident of the inaugural ball in Washington was the meeting of Miss Paulding and her former fiancé, the latter having been a very pretty young woman. The couple met face to face in a narrow turning of the balconies on the second floor. Miss Paulding was embarrassed and for a moment it seemed that she would recognize her former suitor. Senator D. P. W., who was with her, looked Mr. Edie steadily in the face and did not recognize him, and Miss Paulding followed his example.

The young naval officer was not at all disconcerted, but as he passed Mr. D. P. W. and Miss Paulding he made a courtesy bow, according to the custom of a gentleman compelled to pass in front of a lady.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children.
"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough.
